FIFTEEN CENTS

School Board contests shape up

Election date is Saturday, Apr. 8

There will be contests in three school board elections when Antioch voters go to the polls on Saturday, Apr. 8. Two terms are expiring in each of four school districts: Antioch High School, Antioch Grade School, Grass Lake Grade School and Emmons Grade School. The two persons whose terms are expiring at Emmons are Richard Ruck and Ron Sheedlo. Ruck is seeking re-election but Sheedlo isn't. The latter's seat will go to Donald Lessard, the only candidate in addition to Ruck.

THE HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT does have a contest. Two men will be elected to three-year terms. Glen G. Moore is seeking re-election and will be opposed by Tony Starcevic and Richard J. Schlarbaum.

Members of the high school board whose terms are not expiring are Robert M. Lindblad, president; Bette M. Meyer, secretary; Charles J. Forster, Frank C. Johnson and Howard J. Bonner.

THREE MEN ALSO ARE seeking election in Antioch Grade School District 34. There will be two three-year terms opening up and the candidates who filed by last Friday's deadline were Robert N. Olson, Edward P. Haley and Clifton T. Glover.

Neither of the incumbents, Milo Bailey nor Robert E. Kelley, are running this time. Kelley was expected to seek another term, but will be leaving Antioch about Apr. 1 because he has accepted a job as chief tool engineer for a Boston, Mass., corporation, DESMA International.

Members of the District 34 board whose terms are not expiring are Gail Heath, president; Jimmie Quedenfeld, secretary; Homer (Sid) Parker, Bruce Jablonski and Garnet Cook.

AT GRASS LAKE SCHOOL, Jeanne Handschiegel and Susan M. Lloyd are seeking re-election to three-year terms on the board of education. The other candidate is Robert W. Mattson.

Grass Lake board members whose terms aren't expiring are Don Ament, president, John Steitz, Marlene Olson, Mary Beth Walsh and Henry Nohava.

Emmons' board members with time remaining on their terms are Richard Becker, president; Sophie Thain, Ruth Duha, Ann Kaiser and Carl Fischer.

VOTING HOURS on Saturday, Apr. 8, will be from 12

YUP, HE WAS HERE last Saturday. The Easter Bunny was brought into town on a fire truck, sirens sounding and the bunny waving to downtown shoppers. From there he went to Williams Park where hundreds of youngsters took part in the egg hunt sponsored by the village parks department and the Antioch Jaycees. Above, the big bunny posed with little Brian Rubash and Stephanie and Christopher Seemann.

Stove explodes, home damaged by fire, smoke

A stove exploded at the home of Velma Langosch in Villa Rica subdivision Monday afternoon, causing a fire that brought out three Antioch fire department trucks.

The explosion reportedly singed her hair, but Ms. Langosch had time to call the fire department before escaping from the house.

Fire Chief Tod Maplethorpe said there was heavy damage to the kitchen and quite a bit of heat and smoke damage in other rooms.

He said a leaky, flexible connecting pipe on the stove apparently caused the explosion.

Firefighter Kevin Kelly cut his arm on a broken window and was taken to a local clinic by the rescue squad. His injury required a couple of stitches.

Villa Rica subdivision is off Grass Lake Rd., on the south side of Loon Lake.

Must file by Apr. 5

Candidates for commissioner posts on the proposed Antioch Park District must file petitions with Grace Mary Stern, Lake County clerk, no later than Wednesday, Apr. 5.

Petitions are available at the village hall in the park and recreation office. More information can be obtained by calling Susan Koppa, parks coordinator, at 395-2160.

Local businessmen face Chicago Bears

which will begin at 8 p.m. and (possibly) end at 8:02 for some of the Antioch players.

However, Brad Ipsen, who has recruited 20 of Antioch's finest over-the-hill athletes, assures us that he will have enough troops to last the entire game. (Providing the Bears don't play too rough.)

Tickets will be sold soon at the three local financial institutions.

Besides playing the businessmen, the Bears also might play a game against a team composed of high school teachers.

Among the pro football players scheduled to appear here are quarterback Bob Avellini (6-2 and 212 pounds), Jim Osborne (6-3 and 248 pounds), Doug Plank (only 5-11½ and 197) and Gary Fencik (6-1 and 190).

The Bears were scheduled to play in North Chicago two days ago and a press release said their team would include Walter Payton, Roland Harper and others. It isn't known whether Payton and Harper will come to Antioch, but the Bears will bring about eight players.

Ipsen said the Antioch businessmen's team probably will include such interesting players as Rich Higgins, Bill Georgeson, Glenn Hendrickson, Bill Nauman, Mayor Mike Haley, Jim Fields, Pat Ryan, Assistant Police Chief Chuck Miller and Tim Osmond.

Grade school principals Harley Ware and Walt Soderman will be the officials.

3 School Board contests

noon until 7 p.m. in each of the four districts. Grass Lake and Emmons voters will cast their ballots at those schools.

Antioch Grade School voters will have three polling places: Channel Lake, Oakland and the Lower Grade School.

Voters in the high school district will make their decisions at Antioch High School, precinct 1; Pleviak school in Lake Villa, precinct 2, and B.J. Hooper school in Lindenhurst, precinct 3.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

BRAD AND ELLEN IPSEN are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Mary Elizabeth was born on Tuesday, Mar. 14, weighing 8 lbs. and 1 oz. Her big brother, Kent Nathan, is now 20 months old.

Grandparents are Lee and Gert Ipsen, and Bill Barr.

Dennis and Teri Johnson have another little girl, in case you didn't notice the sign in the window at Ashland Jewelers. Linda Walker tells us about the new baby in her "All About Town" column.

LUCKY-BERNIE GUNTY ... he got to spend a week in Hawaii as a member of the popular musical group, "Uncle Jess and His Stardusters." Also flying to the island for the polka festival was the famous Frankie Yankovic.

Lucky Karen and David Lipinski ... they get to eat cake and ice cream Friday, Mar. 24, when their mom, Rose, has another birthday. But when you're as young as Rose, it's easy to blow out all the candles. (On my birthday, a few weeks ago, I didn't make it ... but what do you expect from a senior citizen?)

I HATE TO BE discouraging, but if Caroline Kennedy, 20-year-old daughter of the late president, hopes to be famous ... well, she's going to have to speed up a bit.

We noticed that famous stock car driver Bobby Allison averaged 142 miles an hour while winning a race in Atlanta, Ga., Sunday.

Last week Caroline was only traveling 86 miles an hour when a police car managed to overtake her in New York.

WASN'T IT NEAT that one of Lockport High School's favorite graduates, Amy Laurin of Antioch, was in Champaign last weekend to watch her team win the Illinois state basketball championship?

Placing fourth in the state was Rockford East, the team that beat Antioch in the sectional championships. And John Griffin, the Rockford player whose 35 points helped defeat Antioch, was one of the stars of the state tournament.

All of us Antioch fans are very proud of Coach Roger Andrews' Sequoias, who won their conference championship with a perfect record and had 16 straight wins before running into Rockford East. Then they played that tough team on even terms for more than three quarters. It was one of the best years ever for an Antioch High School basketball team.

Kids flip for fiction; How about adults?

By JERRY PFARR

John Olisar, high school band director, cloaked himself in an authentic Darth Vader costume last week and visited Antioch grade schools to promote his variety show.

At the Lower Grade School the kids went bananas. At least 100 of them flocked around "Darth Vader," that huge, black-garbed villain from the movie "Star Wars."

To youngsters between the ages of 6 and 11, this obviously was more important than reading, writing and arithmetic. (Forgive me for not saying "math," but I can't adjust to the metric system either.)

THERE MUST BE a message here, somewhere.

What turns kids on?

Today it's "Star Wars." A few years ago it was Barbie Dolls, then Batman, followed by Evel Knievel, the $6 million man, Farah Fawcett, and other ridiculous things ... Elvis Presley, for example.

(I know I'll get flack on the Elvis Presley remark, but I couldn't resist it. He could sing, but he couldn't act or dance as well as John Travolta. And, as an actor, I doubt Travolta is in the same league as Sir Laurence Olivier, Burton and Brando, or as a dancer in the same league as Gene Kelly.)

I AM TRYING to remember what fascinated me when I was between 6 and 11 years of age. It's so long ago that the only things I can remember -- the things I lived for -- were the Chicago Cubs, Jack Armstrong (the all-American Boy), Tom Mix (he was a cowboy, kids), Captain Midnight, Mr. Keene (tracer of lost persons), the Lone Ranger and Tonto ("Him Old Friend.")

What's the message? I think it's that things haven't changed a heck of a lot. We didn't have Barbie Dolls when I was a kid but I've noticed that no red-blooded little guy between the ages of 6 and 11 would be seen with a Barbie Doll today, either.

No, sir, boys will always be boys. The message of Darth Vader's fantastic popularity during his visit to Antioch is that throughout the generations we are always excited by fiction.

Consider Farah Fawcett and the Chicago Cubs. They aren't for real, are they?

Trustees make it official: It's Gage Brothers Park

The park to be built adjacent to Antioch's Bicentennial Sawmill will be known as Gage Brothers Park, in honor of the community's first settlers.

Village trustees voted unanimously Monday night to make the name official.

They also accepted a proposal from the Masterbuilt Fence Co. in the amount of $3,349 for a fence around the park.

Dedication ceremonies for the sawmill are scheduled July 4.

IN OTHER ACTION at Monday night's village meeting, the trustees placed Patrolman William Kukla on permanent status with the police department. As with all new officers, Patrolman Kukla was serving a probationary period.

The date for the Antioch Lions Club's annual chicken barbeque will be Sunday, Aug. 6. The trustees authorized issuing a one-day liquor license for the event, to be held at Williams Park.

AT THEIR PREVIOUS MEETING, the village trustees accepted the resignations of Ken Wierschem as chairman of the Antioch planning commission and Jim Koppa from the zoning board of appeals.

In a letter to Mayor Mike Haley, Wierschem said: "You asked me to remain with the planning commission for one year after your election ... one of the benefits of the job has been the privilege of working with such fine people."

Wierschem has built a new home and now his many hours on the planning commission will be assumed by Richard Kirkpatrick, who was appointed to replace him as chairman.

HALEY THANKED WIERSCHEM for his five years as a member and chairman of the planning commission and said:

"I think the village of Antioch is a better place as a result of Ken's participation."

3 staff changes at high school

The Antioch High School board of education has approved three changes in staff assignments for 1978-79:

Gary K. Allen as assistant director of curriculum; Peter A. Pekkarinen as assistant principal, and Jane A. Kleinschmidt as guidance department chairman.

MR. ALLEN'S MAJOR responsibilities will be coordinating curriculum, student scheduling; in-service training, coordinating school publicity and summer school.

Pekkarinen will assume responsibility in the areas of student attendance, discipline and transportation.

Director of Curriculum and Guidance Edward L. Kurek reported that pre-registration is virtually complete and that an early projection would indicate the opening enrollment next fall at 1,860... up approximately 50 from the fall of 1977.

The board set Saturday, Apr. 8, 1978, at 7 p.m. as the meeting time to review bids for life-safety work; canvass election results, and organize the new board.

THAT BIG, "BAD GUY" from "Star Wars," Darth Vader, visited Antioch grade schools last week and youngsters flocked around him.

Greg Allen selected to attend West Point

It has been announced by Congressman Robert McClory that Gregory D. Allen of 565 Orchard St., Antioch, has been chosen by the United States Military Academy at West Point for appointment for the class that enters in July of this year.

Gregory is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary K. Allen.

Gregory is a senior at Antioch High School where he has been a member of the National Honor Society, student council representative and a club officer. He has also been a member of the Boy Scouts.

Following four years of education and military training, leading to graduation, young Allen can be commissioned an officer in the United States Army.

High school juniors interested in a military career can apply to Congressman McClory for his nomination for appointment to the one of the four federal academies - United States Air Force, Army, Naval, or Merchant Marine.

GREG ALLEN

ACTUALLY, INSIDE THE COSTUME was John Olisar, Antioch High School band director, who was merely out promoting his school's Jazz Ensemble show, "Cabaret 78." One of the numbers in the show was "Star Wars." The excitement Darth Vader stirred among the grade school students must contain a message. (See the Pfarr Corner on page 4.)

The United States is not the largest country in the western hemisphere. It's Canada, with a total area of 3,851,809 square miles.

MRS. GEORGE MORAN FREED - On Condition That She Devote herself to Her Children. Touched by the story of Mrs. George Moran of Waukegan, who aided her husband in burglaries, it is said merely to feed the mouths of her suffering babes, Judge Donnelly, Monday morning, freed Mrs. Moran of the charges hanging over her.

President Herman Bock is the boss gardener and on Saturday last had on exhibition a parsnip that measured eighteen inches in circumference and tipped the scales at four pounds. Can any one beat this?

Farm hands are more plentiful this year than usual in the spring and there will be enough men for farmers in this vicinity. The reduction in the force of men in the factories and the scarcity of work in the cities caused the change. The wage scale is about the same as formerly and farm laborers are receiving all the way from $20 to $30 a month, varying with the amount of work and the location.

Mrs. E.N. Buttrick moved the fore part of the week from the Grice house to rooms in the Williams house on Orchard Street.

40 YEARS AGO: MARCH 24, 1938

Otto S. Klass, Art Dalziel and George B. Bartlett, who have become sponsors of the local Boy Scouts, today received thanks of the Scouts, for their interest in giving their time and support to the organization.

The mysterious murder of William Hanock, 80, year old retired railroad man, which occurred here at his home six years ago, has been solved.

The persistence of Chief Deputy Sheriff Thomas E. Kennedy, who kept open the six-year-old murder case, was rewarded Thursday night with the capture of five men who are charged with the robbery and slaying of the aged Antioch resident.

20 YEARS AGO: MARCH 20, 1958

Barnstable and Brogan will hold a grand opening Saturday in that firm's new location at 945 Main St.

Terry Blank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Blank of Deep Lake showed Miss Barbara Best, his science teacher, his contribution which was accepted by an Associated Press syndicate column "Junior Editors' Quiz" in the Waukegan News-Sun. He received $10 for asking "Does the Hippopotamus really Sweat Blood?" The youth is a freshman at Antioch High School.

The Lions Club of Antioch will give its annual banquet honoring Antioch Township High School athletes and cheerleaders at 7 p.m. Monday at the high school. Vince Lloyd, well known radio and TV sports announcer will be the guest speaker.

Kenneth Appleby received the Arion Foundation award at the Musical last Friday night as the outstanding senior in music at Antioch Township High School.

10 YEARS AGO: MARCH 21, 1968

The Illinois High School Association state band and choir contest was held at Antioch Saturday, March 16. Fifteen schools were represented. Antioch won a superior rating.

Antioch High School Student Council announces that a spring dance featuring "The Outspoken Blues" will take place Saturday, March 30 in the high school gym. Dress will be according to the Antioch High School Grooming Code, with the addition that girls may wear slacks but boys may NOT wear blue jeans.

As of Monday morning, the Chatterbox Restaurant has new owners. They are Souleman-Mussa and Vasfi Muedini, who formerly operated the Olympia Restaurant in Mundelein.

PLACING SECOND in the state in distributive education sales competition was Larry Hansen (center), representing Antioch High School. Larry is the third distributive education student to place high in the state

Many persons 'behind scenes' for VIP event

Committee members are finalizing plans for the Saturday, Apr. 15, VIP dinner-dance at St. Peter's social center.

Gene and Eileen Zannini will be honored as Antioch's VIP couple for 1978, the 10th year the event has been held.

Mr. and Mrs. Zannini will be interviewed next Monday, Mar. 27, at 11 a.m. by Marie Flores of WKRS radio, Waukegan. The interview will take place at The Country House restaurant and will include Rev. Francis Kub, moderator of the VIP event, and Monika Coyle, co-chairman.

PAT ROMAN, ALSO a co-chairman, said Monday that Mrs. Kathryn Wells has the dinner menu planned.

Ed and Marie Esser, and Jim and Monika Coyle, co-chairmen, have listed some of the persons helping with this year's arrangements.

Kevin Kelly is bar chairman, Jane Marie and Tom Merkel are decoration chairmen, Charles Forster is in charge of "set-up" and dinner tickets and the guest book are being handled by Betty Letkey.

Conservation club's egg hunt is Saturday

By CHARLES P. RAYMAN

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club will sponsor its 19th annual Easter Egg Hunt Saturday on the club grounds, 2½ miles west of Antioch, just south of Route 173.

The event is expected to attract several hundred children and their parents. The hunt for the more than 700 multi-colored eggs, and also the special prize eggs, starts at 11 a.m.

PERSONS INTENDING to take part in the various hunts should be on hand prior to 11, since the program will close at 1 p.m.

Beginning at 11, youngsters 10 years old and under will be divided into age groups of 1 to 4 years, 5 through 7 years and 8 through 10 years. When the signal is given, the hunt will be on.

Prizes will be given to those gathering the largest number of eggs in each category.

THE CLUB KITCHEN will provide coffee and rolls. At the conclusion of the hunt, the club trap range will be open and "no-charge" shotgun instruction will be offered for those interested.

The club, headed this year by Henry Kaht, is a non-profit organization dedicated to the "conservation of our natural heritage in Illinois and the United States."

Its membership has been growing steadily and today has more than 400 members.

"The club's efforts include better understanding of game laws and wildlife management. It attempts to instill in individuals a love of the outdoors, respect for the rights of others and law enforcement, and it sponsors legislation directed toward preservation of an abundant fish and wildlife population for coming generations," Kaht said.

"Persons having similar aims are invited to join the club and take an active part. A call to Maryanne Kaht at 395-1898 will bring complete information to those interested," he added.

Ashland Jewelers' pink sign in their window stating, "It's a Girl," indicates Dennis and Teri Johnson are the proud parents of little Julie Ann who was born last Thursday, Mar. 16.

I think the sign is second-hand, though, since Dennis and Teri have another daughter, Jean Ellen, who simply loves the baby. Jean and Julie will probably not be first-string basketball players, but I'll bet we'll see some cute cheerleaders in upcoming years.

DICK HAUTZINGER IS BACK managing Floral Acres, the florist and greenhouse one mile south of Antioch on Hwy. 83.

Dick left Floral Acres about the same time I started with the paper, so it's almost like meeting a new businessman. He's very glad to be back in the Antioch area and looks forward to renewing old friendships.

Right now, Dick is busy planting minute seeds that will blossom into petunias for future outdoor gardening. He intends to handle everything needed for gardening including perennial plants and vegetables.

Welcome back Hautzinger!

RED WOLFE, FROM POE and Poe Realtors, returned from a dream vacation with his wife, Pat. They had a fantastic week on a French island in the West Indies at a self-contained resort.

The weather was in the 80's and there was so much to do and enjoy that Red never left the premises. He said it was the closest thing to paradise he has seen. Sure do envy him.

SAW OUR OLD FRIEND, Fred Rakoncaj. Fred and his charming wife, Carol, used to own The Little Gallery. They sold it to Sharon Teaters.

Sharon is busy again - she had the entire shop painted during the weekend and is trying to rearrange her arts and crafts department. It won't be long until her addition in the 9-store mall being built by John Teresi and Ray Scarpelli will be completed. She's predicting an opening of the mall sometime in May.

DO YOU HAVE Spring Fever yet? I'm so desperate for the first sign of spring, I'm about to find a sparrow and paint his chest orange.

Honor attendants were the bride's sister, Linda Padjen, and the bride's uncle, Douglas Geng, both from San Diego, Calif.

After the reception in the MGM Grand Hotel, attended by the bride and groom's families, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip touring the West.

They will be making their home in Antioch where they are both employed at the Antioch Bowling Lanes.

St. Mary's Cathedral in Peoria was the setting for the wedding of Miss Cindi Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weninger of 904 Park Ave., Pekin, and Kirk Dalgaard of East Peoria, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dalgaard of Antioch.

Rev. James Carr read the marriage vows at 1 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 28, at the altar which was flanked with baskets of white mums and gladioli.

1972 exchange student drowns in Costa Rica

The Tod Maplethorpe family of Antioch has received word of the death on Nov. 6, 1977, of Julio Sanchez, the Costa Rican exchange student who lived with the Maplethorpes in 1972.

A letter from Julio's father said that Julio drowned in the ocean near his father's ranch, where he had gone to entertain some North American friends.

Julio spent the 1971-72 school year attending Antioch High School and graduated in May, 1977, from Colby

College in Waterville, Maine.

He had received a four-year scholarship from the United Nations and, while attending Colby College, did extensive research which he hoped to continue after graduation from the medical school of the University of Costa Rica.

His two younger sisters are also medical students at the University of Costa Rica. The younger one spent last year as an exchange student in Philadelphia.

Wednesday is last chance to see 'Godspell' here

The final performance of "Godspell" will be given here tonight (Wednesday) and we hope you don't miss it.

(For those of you who buy the Antioch News at a newsstand on Tuesday evening, you still have two chances. Curtain time is 8 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, the last performances of the magical musical that opened here last Saturday at the United Methodist Church.)

HERE'S WHAT JOHN RICE, a refreshingly capable Waukegan News-Sun reviewer, had to say about "Godspell": "A delightfully energetic romp of 'Godspell' is being presented by the Fool's Players at the Antioch Methodist Church, Saturday evening's opening performance took the audience by storm, sending the people home clapping and stomping and quite happy."

"Godspell is a collection of parables and sayings from the Gospel of St. Matthew, with music and lyrics by Stephen Swartz. They are portrayed in mime and other comic antics much in the manner of the miracle and mystery plays of the Middle Ages."

"The Fool's Players, a once-a-year performing company started by Ken Smouse also of PM&L of Antioch, brought its wide range of talents to produce this show as a theater-in-the-church presentation.

"Godspell utilizes the magic illusion of the theater in a unique way. The characters dress in funny costumes and romp all over the playing area. They create in the imagination a world of meaning and significance out of nothing. That illusion is the charm of this show, but it also is its life force."

"For most of the evening, the Fool's Players keep the illusion. A strong performance was given by Lee Ramey, who, within his range, has a powerful voice. Jenny Beese showed remarkable strength in her solo."

"DURING THE INTERMISSION the cast played frisbee with the audience, gave out drinks and generally kept up the business of the first act."

"Director Bryan Sorenson and musical director Tracy Teltz did an outstanding job in keeping together a show that thrives on movement, quick lines and irregular pacing.

"The Fool's Players is an energetic group of young people whose energy sometimes gets the better of their dramatic insight. But they are loaded with talent and their excesses can be forgiven."

"Godspell works and works joyfully, and is a good show for this Holy Week."

THE SHOW WAS a sellout Sunday night ... be sure to get there early for Wednesday's 8 p.m. finale.

PERSPECTIVES

A True Prison Experience

By DONALD COLE
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

Before he became one himself Saul of Tarsus was good at catching Christians and throwing them into prison. He had a license to do so, and he used it energetically. Then he also became a Christian and his former friends declared open season on him; the hunter became the hunted. In the years that followed Paul (as he was then called) was arrested repeatedly, suffering the same indignities he had formerly heaped on others. Everything he had done unto others was done unto him.

But for him prison was not a disaster; in fact, it could almost be said that he did his best work in prison. While sheltered in Caesar's jails Paul wrote this beautiful "Prison Epistles" - which have enriched the Church for nearly two thousand years. And from jail in Rome Paul once wrote that his imprisonment had actually worked to the advantage of the Gospel. It meant "a personal witness for Christ before the palace guards," and it also encouraged other believers to be more bold in their witness (cf. Phil. 1:12).

Paul's personal witness was effective, too. Never was this more obvious than in Philippi, where Paul got his first taste of jail. Earlier, he had been threatened but in Philippi nobody took time to threaten him; he was grabbed, without warning and dragged to a public square where the city magistrates were holding court. The magistrates didn't take time to hear any evidence in support of the charges laid against Paul. Maybe they were too busy feeding the pigeons. In any case, Paul and his companion, Silas, were summarily stripped and flogged, then hustled off to jail almost before they knew what was happening to them. For the former darling of the chief priests of Jerusalem, it was a come-down. But it was also the occasion for the conversion of the jailer, and that more than compensation for the inconvenience and personal humiliation of the preachers.

How the jailer became a Christian makes a gripping story. It happened at midnight when an earthquake awakened him. His first reaction was to check the prison, since he was charged with the safekeeping of the prisoners. A jailbreak could cost him his life because an escape of prisoners was taken seriously by the Romans. No excuses would be accepted. So, when he saw the doors wide open he feared the worst and pulled his short sword to kill himself, preferring suicide to reporting the loss of his prisoners.

Paul stopped him. He did it by shouting that the prisoners had not escaped! They were whimpering in fear, no doubt, wondering whether the roof would fall on them, but they were all present. Luke, who wrote the account, says the jailer called for lights and rushed into the inner cell where Paul and Barnabas were kept, and falling down before them said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" They told him immediately what to do. "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and You shall be saved" - and that's not just something to think about; it's something to do.

Antioch swimmers star in state meet

The YMCA of Greater Lake County made a good showing at the state "Y" swim championships in Peoria.

The area "Y" placed seven individuals and nine relay teams in the top 15 finishers of the various events, with the Antioch area providing several of these swimmers.

Representatives from more than fifty "Y's" participated in the meet.

Ted Bessette, although spending the majority of the winter season wrestling for Antioch High School, proved his all-round ability by placing 13th in the junior age class (13 and 14) 100-yard breast stroke. Later in the meet, he teamed with Craig White of Antioch in helping the junior boys 200-yard freestyle relay team to an 11th place finish.

The junior class boys 200-yard medley relay team, with Ted White swimming butterfly and John Ludwig backstroke, also finished 11th. Two Antioch youths in the intermediate (15 to 18) class, Jack Fields and Kevin Shepard, were part of the 200-yard medley relay that placed 12th.

The best local girl finisher was Kaky Kelly who placed in every event she swam in the midget (9 and 10) class. Individually she finished 15th in the 50-yard freestyle and also was a member of the midget 200-yard medley relay and 200-yard freestyle relay, which placed seventh and ninth respectively.

Other Antioch girl swimmers who won ribbons were Cindy Morris, swimming backstroke, and Colleen Kelly, swimming breast stroke, who helped the cadet (8 and under) 100-yard medley relay team finish 10th.

Judy Houghton, an intermediate, was a member of the 200-yard medley relay team that placed ninth and also a member, along with Karen Shepard, of the 400-yard intermediate relay team that placed 10th.

Upper Grade wrestlers in tourney

Four Antioch Upper Grade School boys competed in the Illinois Kid Wrestling Federation State Finals wrestling tourney.

March 17 and 18 at MacArthur High School, Decatur, Ill.

To qualify for the tourney the Antioch boys had to place in the district tourney, and place first and second in the sectional tourney. The four qualifiers, Greg Pahlke, 95 lbs.; John Wohlfeil, 100 lbs.; Andy Lehn, 112 lbs.; and George Bessette, 118 lbs. all wrestled well against very fine competition.

George Bessette placed fourth, and of the Antioch boys was the only one to place.

WORKING TOGETHER at Radke's Barber shop now are Dick Radke (left) and Mr. Arnold, who formerly was located in the Savings & Loan Plaza. "We're running the barbershop (at 912 Main St.) the same as always, with no appointments needed for haircutting," said Radke, who has been at the Main St. location since 1956. Mr. Arnold is a beautician and men's hairstylist, in addition to being a barber. He has been working in Antioch since 1955. In addition to parking on Main St., the shop has parking in the back and a rear entrance. Dick's grandfather, Herman A. Radke, started the barbershop in 1896 and was followed in business by Dick's father, "Cap" Radke and his uncle, Harry. "The same location, same family and same business since 1896," Dick said, "but now, with Mr. Arnold joining me, we have a lot more to offer."

Football starts earlier in 1980

An earlier start of the football season, beginning in the fall of 1980, has been approved by the Illinois High School Association (IHSA).

The change allows for the beginning of fall practice as early as the third Monday preceding Labor Day and for the first game to be played on the Friday preceding Labor Day.

In the seasons of 1978 and 1979 the legal starting date for fall practice will continue to be the third Wednesday preceding Labor Day, and the legal date for the first game will continue to be the first Friday following Labor Day.

By delaying the implementation date until 1980, schools will not be hampered in their scheduling.

The earlier start of practice and the regular season could move ahead the dates of the annual state football playoff series.

Boys sign up for baseball in April

The dates for Little League and Babe Ruth baseball have been set. Boys aged 8 to 15 are eligible to play.

Registration will be held at the Antioch Scout House on Main Street on Friday, Apr. 7 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.; Saturday, Apr. 8, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.;

Friday, Apr. 14 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. and Saturday, Apr. 15 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The fee is $10.00 for Little League and $12.00 for Babe Ruth. The fees are reduced for families with more than one boy participating.

Parents should accompany their child to registration.

It is very important that boys register during the designated times. Try-out times will be assigned at this time.

Coaches for Babe Ruth teams are needed. You can call Ivan Blanchette at 395-0136 or Bob Berchtold at 395-2224 if you are over 21 and interested.

High school tennis season 10 days away

The Antioch High School tennis team is scheduled to open its 22-meet season on Saturday, Apr. 1 at Buffalo Grove.

The varsity has all but three 1977 members returning. Bob Nasenbeny, Matt Warner and Mark Mondrowski have graduated.

Last year's varsity finished with a 14-1 mark with the only loss coming at the hands of Stevenson in a close 2-3 match.

The sophomores could be quite capable of filling in the three vacancies since they finished with a 15-0 mark in 1977 while also winning the Rockford Harlem invitational.

Among the tougher teams Antioch will face this year are Harlem, Dundee, Lake Forest, Carmel and Stevenson.

DENNIS KORJENEK, who played first singles last year, will be returning to defend his 15-6 record, including two losses to Bill Heiser of Stevenson (6th place in singles in the state tournament).

Keith Rezin also is returning. He played third singles for Antioch last year but will probably move up to second singles. Last year he posted a 18-3 record.

Another returning senior is George Richter, who played doubles last year. He was 13-6 and may play third singles. Filling the vacancies left by the graduating seniors will be Roger Korjenek 16-1 last year, Tom Surrock 13-3, Phil Rezin 17-0, Tom Melhorn 16-1 and Greg McKenna 14-2.

THE SOPHOMORE TEAM has already been selected and has personnel comparable to last year's 15-0 team. Returning from last year's team are Jim Nikolai 6-1, Terry Shepard 5-1 and John Goth 3-0 as freshmen.

Leading the sophomore team will be those three and freshmen Daryl Blanchette, Frank Skradski, Dan Rezin and Ken Drinkwine.

Kevin Verba, Matt Lubkeman and Gary Manual are first year sophomores who will also contribute to an excellent team, coaches said.

Antioch's first home meet will be against Round Lake at the high school and Jensen Park.

TWO ANTIOCH HIGH SCHOOL players were named all-conference after the girls basketball season. Cathy Aschbacher (left) and Linda Hoffeditz pose with their coach, Chris Coolidge. Cathy, a senior, averaged about 14 points a game, including 24 in one game, and collected at least 16 rebounds in each of her last five contests. Linda, a junior, averaged eight points but missed the last five games because of a broken foot. Coach Coolidge called Linda "a good playmaker."

ACHS girls lose by 3 in finale HAPPENINGS

Last week the Antioch girls varsity basketball team ended its season with a 45-42 regional loss to Warren.

"It was clearly one of the best games the Antioch girls played all season but their inability to convert on free throws led to their demise," said Coach Christy Coolidge.

Antioch scored three more field goals than Warren but was outscored 11-2 from the free throw line.

Cathy Aschbacher scored 16 points followed by Mae Stiles with 9, Chris Byrne with 8 and Kathy Bailey with 7.

The loss gave the Sequoias an 8-14 season record. At the end of the season the team voted Cathy Aschbacher most valuable and freshman Chris Byrne most improved.

Two Antioch girls, Cathy Aschbacher and Linda Hoffeditz, were chosen members of the all-conference team.

Frosh cagers give Antioch hope for coming seasons

The 1977-78 season was a successful one for the two Antioch High School freshman basketball teams.

The "A" team tied Warren and Stevenson for the unofficial conference title with 13-3 records. Antioch's three losses were to Warren, Stevenson and Grant late in the season.

Overall, the team's record was 14-6 with non-conference losses to Zion, Lake Forest and Libertyville in close games, and a third victory over Grayslake.

The "B" team finished 14-1 in conference and 14-3 overall to post the best record in the conference.

THIS TEAM HAS as much or more potential as any I have coached," said Norm Hahn.

Statistics show it was a good shooting and rebounding team. The team averaged 48 percent in field goal shooting (43 percent is average) and out-rebounded opponents 634 to 413.

Overall team size was good with three regulars standing 6'2".

"All the players had good mobility. Scoring was balanced with four players averaging six or more points per game and four others between three and six points per game. Team defense was good, holding opponents to 35 points per game while scoring at a 47 point average," Coach Hahn said.

"THE BIGGEST PROBLEMS were turnovers, some immaturity and over-confidence," Hahn said. "The turnovers usually resulted from hurriedness and the others are emotional weaknesses and not a lack of physical skills. They should correct themselves as the players mature."

He added:

"The class of 1981 has very bright prospects as far as basketball is concerned. Interest in the sport is high as evidenced by almost 50 boys trying out for the team and the fact that all 25 players chosen completed the season."

Individual statistics for season:

Scoring (name, total points, per game average) - Maras, 253, 12.6; Weber, 170, 8.5; Koesser, 155, 7.8; Pomazak, 129, 6.4; Eckert, 80, 4.2; Ploss, 65, 3.2.

Rebounds - Maras, 177; Eckert, 109; Ploss, 92; Koesser and Pomazak, 64 each.

Assists - Weber, 60; Koesser, 55; Pomazak, 44.

Recoveries - Weber, 66; Koesser, 41; Pomazak, 35; Maras, 33.

Shooting - Field goal percentage: Domkowski, 64; Maras, 54; Eckert, 51.

Free throw percentage: Koesser, 71; Weber, 60.

Apr. 15 is opening night at Wilmot

There may be snow on the Wilmot, Wis., track now, but stock car auto racing is only a few weeks away.

The initial "Super Saturday Night of 1978 Stock Car Racing" at the Kenosha County Speedway is scheduled, Apr. 15.

The super-modifieds will return for their 6th year on the one-third-mile clay oval and will be supported by the sportsmen and a new group of street-type spectator stocks each Saturday night.

Ray Toft, president of Toft Auto Racing, will again manage and promote the events.

Records were set last year by Carmen Manzardo, Lindenhurst; Dick Colburn, Muskego, Wis., and Brian Leslie, Gurnee.

The chase for the 1978 championship will be wide open in both classes.

Manzardo won three features, five heats and set fast time on eight nights in the super-modifieds to gain the 1977 championship.

Mike Klemko, sportsmen champion, will be racing in the late model stock car ranks this season, along with Manzardo.

The first of several special events will be a 50-lap "Memorial Feature" on May 27; with the 50-lap mid-season championship scheduled July 1.

Gates at the speedway open each Saturday at 6 p.m. with time trials at 6:30 and the first race at 8.

The Kenosha County Speedway is on the fairgrounds in Wilmot, three miles north of the Illinois state line.
